

Types of Data

Categorical data can be sorted into non-overlapping categories

Ordinal data can be written in order or given a numerical rating scale

Bivariate data is pairs of related data

Multivariate data involves 3 or more related data values

What type of data are each of the following? Note that there may be more than one!

Number of sheep in a field .....

Nationality of a football player .....

Time taken to solve a Rubik's cube .....

Colour of a car .....

Age and shoe size .....

Type of pet owned .....

The mass of a suitcase .....

Number of people watching a cricket match .....

The length of a piece of string .....